1.25 cr. Embezzlement at Vani Vilas Water Works

4 Water Inspectors and 18 Meter Readers siphon off money paid by 490 citizens towards pending water bills

Mysuru, Dec. 6 (RK&BCT)- Mysuru seems to be grappling with a series of corruption scams involving public funds. After the massive illegal allotment of thousands of sites and the embezzlement of crores of rupees by the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA), another shocking case has emerged.

This time, it is Vani Vilas Water Works (VVWW), the Mysuru City Corporation's (MCC) drinking water supply arm, where some of the employees have been caught misappropriating water bill payments made by unsuspecting citizens.

During a review meeting in October 2024 to assess progress on outstanding water bill collections, it was discovered that certain VVWW staff had misused consumer payments.

Vani Vilas Water Works (VVWW) Main Office at Yadavagiri.

Investigation Committee

In response, MCC Commissioner Ashaad-Ur-Rahman Shariff formed a Committee, headed by Superintending Engineer (SE) K.J. Sindhu, to probe the matter. The MCC also plans to file criminal cases against the culprits and terminate them, if found guilty.

(See WATER on page 6)

Culprits tender apology, repay Rs. 99,34,425

"The Investigation Committee, led by MCC SE K.J. Sindhu, found that the culprits admitted to their wrongdoings and submitted written apology letters to the MCC. As of now, they have repaid Rs. 99,34,425,which has been duly deposited into the City Corporation's account. Mallikarjun, managing the water billing software on behalf of Seminal Software Pvt. Ltd., played a crucial role in the embezzlement. The investigation revealed that he hacked the login credentials of Executive Engineer and used them to generate fake bills in software daily between 6 pm and midnight."

The wicked Duryodhana performed a yaga to kill the Pandavas when they were in forest, and he sent a ghost to execute it. The ghost would kill only those who were alive. Sensing this, Sri Krishna instructed Lord Yama Dharmaraja to take the form of a yaksha. The yaksha intercepted all the Pandavas who came to drink water in a pond, except Yudhisthira, and turned them dead. Man drinks litres of lemon, lime juice

Germany: A serial world record-breaker from Germany reclaimed two of his former titles in a single day by drinking litres of lemon juice and lime juice.

Andre Ortolf, 30, previously held the records for the fastest time to drink a litre of lemon juice through a straw and the same record for drinking lime juice, but lost both this year to fellow serial record-breaker David Rush.

Ortolf's time was 16 seconds, which Rush beat with a time of 13.53 seconds. Ortolf has now reclaimed both titles, with a time of 13.3 seconds for the lemon juice and 13.51 seconds for the lime juice.

He said breaking both records in a single day had only minor consequences.

"In general, I usually don't have any problems with eating and drinking records. This time, too, my stomach felt relatively good, but I had a toothache. It only went away after a day," he said.

Saraswathipuram Swimming Pool poorly maintained

Sir,

The Saraswathipuram Swimming Pool has recently earned the unfortunate distinction of being the most poorly maintained facility in our community, compounded by the unprofessional behaviour of its lifeguards.

Firstly, the pool is not cleaned regularly, resulting in murky water and an unhygienic environment that poses serious health risks to swimmers. This neglect significantly diminishes experience of using the facility. Despite repeated complaints, the management has failed to implement any noticeable improvements.

Secondly, the lifeguards, who are responsible for ensuring safety and maintaining order, have exhibited discourteous and unprofessional behaviour. Instances of raised voices and disrespectful responses to genuine concerns have been reported by several pool users, creating an unwelcoming atmosphere for families and individuals.

We strongly urge the authorities to take immediate action to address these issues. Regular and thorough cleaning schedules must be implemented without fail, and staff, especially lifeguards, should undergo rigorous training to improve their professional conduct and communication skills.

Our community deserves a swimming pool that is clean, safe, and welcoming. We hope this complaint serves as a call to action for prompt and effective corrective measures.

MUDA 50:50 sites scam

Ex-MUDA Commissioners shaking State Government: MLA Srivatsa

Srivatsa

Mysuru, Dec. 6 (GA&BS)- Krishnaraja (KR) MLA T.S. Srivatsa has said, former Commissioners of Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) have been holding the State Government on a knife's edge.

He was speaking to media persons after launching various development works worth Rs. 2.30 crore at his Constituency in city yesterday.

MLA Srivatsa, who has been spearheading the struggle against 50:50 site scam at MUDA said that former MUDA Commissioners G.T. Dinesh Kumar and Dr. D.B. Natesh, who had a major role to play in the scam are yet to be arrested.

Dinesh Kumar is directly connected with the allotment of 48 sites (that have been withdrawn recently), but the Government is dilly-dallying over taking action against both the former Commissioners, he said.

Continuing his tirade, Srivatsa said, both the Officers wield enormous clout on Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Urban Development (UD) Minister Byrathi Suresh, which gives rise to suspicion whether they have been threatening to bare it all, if they were targeted, thus evading any Police action against them, including their arrest. There was a time when the CM was keeping officials on the edge, but now it is vice-versa, he observed.

Dr. Natesh

Dinesh Kumar

Srivatsa said he has already written to the Chief Secretary of the State Government to initiate action against both the Officers.

"The Enforcement Directorate (ED) has completed the probe in all angles, except for probing the suspects individually. However, I am disappointed over the nature of probe by ED on some counts; What happened to MUDA files? Why no raids were conducted on the office of UD Minister Byrathi Suresh? The Lokayukta, which is also probing the case, has also flagged concerns about 140 missing files," said Srivatsa.

He accused Dinesh and Dr. Natesh of diverting avarice towards investment in various firms, with their relatives as proxies. It is said that the relatives of Dinesh are on the board of Vakrathunda House Building Co-operative Society. But the question is, why no raids were conducted on this firm? he asked.

To a query on former MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev claiming innocence in MUDA scam, Srivatsa asked, who was that 'great man' behind allotting 14 sites to CM's wife? Who usurped 848 sites? If he had no role in the irregularities, better he clarify in writing? dared Srivatsa, training his guns on Rajeev.

HC Divisional Bench defers CM's plea to Jan. 25

Bengaluru, Dec. 6 (KMS&BS)- The Division Bench of Karnataka High Court on Thursday issued notices to the respondents in an appeal filed by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, challenging the permission granted by the Governor for a probe in the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) case. However, the Court has adjourned the hearing to Jan. 25, 2025.

The two-Judge Divisional Bench of Chief Justice N.V. Anjaria and Justice K.V. Arvind also observed that, no stay can be granted on the order of single-Judge Bench. Also, no interpretation can be made in the application filed seeking Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) probe. The appeal can be filed at the respective single-Judge Bench.

During the proceedings, Advocate General A.G. Shashikiran informed the Court that notices had not been issued to the respondents yet. The Court directed the issuance of notices to the Governor, CBI and Lokayukta.

'Tainted' babus invested ill-gotten wealth in various firms: Krishna

Krishna

Mysuru, Dec. 6 (RK&BS)- In a fresh trouble to former MUDA Commissioners, Right To Information (RTI) activist Snehamayi Krishna has lodged a complaint at the Lokayukta SP Office here, alleging that former MUDA Commissioners have invested ill-gotten wealth earned through the allotment of sites under 50:50 scheme in contravention of law, in various firms in the name of their family members as proxies.

Snehamayi Krishna has provided details about Rashmi, wife of former MUDA Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh, who is a partner in four companies by investing crores of rupees. She is the Director of Stone Ventures, Cauvery Company, Vipasana Health Care and Akinova Health Care.

That apart, Dr. Natesh has purchased a flat in an apartment at Bogadi and 1.3 acres of land near Yelwal, said Krishna, who claims to have corroborative records in his possession.

Allegations appear true

Referring to the latest development, where ED has written to Lokayukta about its findings so far in the ongoing probe into the site scam at MUDA, Krishna said, at the outset the allegations made by me are proved correct.

H.V. Rajeev, former MUDA Chairman who claims to have allotted 14 sites to CM Siddaramaiah's wife Parvathi, should come forth with the law that mandates the allotment of sites and the favourable Court order and release the documents to prove his claim.

"I have released sufficient documents to prove the illegalities in the allotment of sites. The statement of Rajeev, is a tactic to divert people's attention," he said.

CBI probe?

He also exuded confidence over the High Court considering his plea to hand over the probe into the allotment of sites, including that of CM's wife Parvathi by MUDA to the CBI, with the application expected to be taken up for hearing on Dec. 10.

SC directs State Govt. to pay relief to Mysuru land owners

New Delhi, Dec. 6 (Agencies)- The Supreme Court (SC) has passed an order directing the Karnataka Government to pay compensation as per market rate, to the owner of two acres of land at Hinkal village in Mysuru district, acquired for developing Vijayanagar Layout back in 1986.

The Bench of Justices Surya Kant and Ujjal Bhuyan also remarked that, in such cases of compensation towards land acquisition, it cannot be held up for a longer period. The denial of compensation for a longer period is a violation of Right to Property as per Article 300A of the Constitution of India.

The Apex Court took cognisance of the plea of land owners Jayalakshmamma and others waiting for compensation towards their land acquired by the Government. They were represented by Senior Advocate Anand Sanjay M. Nooli.

The Bench also observed that, the officials failed to provide any substantial reasons for the delay in awarding compensation. The compensation must be paid to the land owners, according to the market price as on June 1, 2019, the Bench ordered the Special Land Acquisition Officer (SLAO).

Mysuru, Dec. 6 (MK&DM)- Noted Historian and writer Dr. Vikram Sampath said that though Tipu Sultan was a warrior, he was not a freedom fighter.

He was speaking at interaction held after release of his book 'Tipu Sultan: The Saga of Mysore's Interregnum (1760-1799)' at a programme organised by Mysuru Literary Forum Charitable Trust at Jaganmohan Palace here yesterday.

Pointing that there are no confusions about Tipu, who waged a battle against the British, being called a warrior, Vikram Sampath said that, however, at the same it is wrong to portray him as a freedom fighter. "I have written the book based on the facts documented by Tipu himself. If Tipu, who had sought the help of French to take on the British, had indeed won the battle, then India would have been a colony of the French and we all would have had to speak French," he said with a smile.

Continuing, he said "Tipu had written a letter to Afghanistan ruler Jamanshah Ahmed Durrani to invade India so that the country could be turned into an Islamic State. Tipu had a malicious intention of converting the entire Indian Sub-Continent into an Islamic Caliphate in two years."

Bemoaning that several warriors have been excessively eulogised in history, he said that Tipu had both good and bad qualities. He also decried the attempts to sweep Tipu's wrongs and follies under the rug just because he was a warrior who took on British.

"The Muslim community of today cannot be blamed for the atrocities and exploitation carried out in the past by Muslim rulers such as Mohammed Ghazni, Mohammed Ghori, Taimur, Babar, Aurangzeb and Tipu. The community will not defend or accept such heinous acts of the erstwhile Muslim rulers and everyone should understand this," he maintained.

Member of the erstwhile Mysore royal family Pramoda Devi Wadiyar, in her address said that the book is an unprejudiced interpretation of Tipu's rule and times. Asserting that the 904-page book is unbiased in assessing the times of Tipu, she said the book also highlights the multi-personality of Tipu.

"The name Tipu Sultan itself evokes varied thoughts among the people. While Hyder Ali grew to become a dictator due to his military and organisation skills during the times of Immadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, Tipu, who came after him, declared himself as a Sultan," Pramoda Devi said.

"All these happened in a span of about 40 years from 1761 to 1799 when Tipu died, following which the princely State of Mysore was re-established, thanks to the persistent efforts of Maharani Lakshmi Ammanni. Thereafter, Mummadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, who was six years old then, occupied the throne. Jaganmohan Palace was built during his time. This Palace stands testimony to many historical and important incidents and happenings during pre-independence and post-independence era," she added.

Earlier, veteran writer and Saraswathi Samman awardee Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa released the book.

Journalist Preethi Nagaraj moderated the interaction.

Mysuru Literary Forum Charitable Trust Chairperson Shubha Sanjay Urs, Secretary C.R. Hanumanth, S.L. Bhyrappa Sahitya Pratisthana Hon. Secretary Prof. G.L. Shekar and others were present.

Madhu Kumar (Wards 1 and 4), C.P. Raghu (Ward 1), T.M. Siddesh (Ward 23), M. Mallesh (Wards 20, 21 and 44), C. Kumar (Wards 9 and 10), R.S. Deve Gowda (Bharat Nagar and Satagalli), Razeek Ahmed (Wards 11, 12 and 13), C.M. Sagar (Wards 13 and 14), N. Praveen (Ward 51), Lingaraju (Wards 10 and 11); Water Inspectors N. Mohan (Hootagalli area), K. Mahesh (Vijayanagar) and Channegowda (Wards 8, 17 and 25), have been found guilty in this major embezzlement scandal.

Additionally, Mallikarjun, a backend technical staff member from a private company — Seminal Software Pvt. Ltd, — responsible for managing the water billing software, was found complicit. Together, they misappropriated Rs. 1.25 crore by generating fake bills and defrauding MCC through fraudulent water bill collections from consumers.

4 Water Inspectors, 18 Meter Readers

Four Water Inspectors and 18 Meter Readers targeted households with outstanding water bills for several months, using threats of disconnecting the water supply to coerce immediate and on-the-spot cash payments.

After collecting the money, instead of depositing the collected cash into the official water users' accounts, they pocketed the money. At the end of each month, they collaborated with Mallikarjun from Seminal, the company managing the water billing software. Mallikarjun illegally generated fake receipts and entered the collected amounts into the users' accounts. This conspiracy caused the next month's water bills to reflect reduced amounts, enabling the culprits to evade detection temporarily. However, the fraud came to light during a review of outstanding water bill collections.

Fraudulent activities

For approximately one-and-a-half years, Water Inspectors and Meter Readers engaged in fraudulent activities by creating fake receipts and misappropriating funds. Between April 2023 and Dec. 5, 2024, they collected Rs. 1.25 crore from 490 water consumers without depositing the money into the MCC account or the accounts of VV Water Works. This misconduct was uncovered during a review of outstanding water bill collections.

Following this discovery, MCC Commissioner Ashaad-Ur-Rahman Shariff directed Superintending Engineer Sindhu to investigate the matter and provide a detailed report with recommendations.

Six regular employees, rest contract

Among the hand-in-glove staff members, six are regular employees, while 15 are contractual workers. SE Sindhu, who led the investigation, compiled a detailed report supported by comprehensive documentation and submitted it to the MCC Commissioner.

It has been recommended in the report to file criminal cases against the staff who misappropriated cash collected from the public for outstanding water bills and failed to deposit it into the Corporation's account. Additionally, it has been suggested in the report that these individuals be dismissed from service.

Four dismissed today

Following the submission of the report, MCC Commissioner Shariff today dismissed four timescale employees while 15 members of outsourced employees were relieved from service.

Preparations are also underway to lodge a Police complaint and register an FIR against those involved in the embezzlement.

This incident follows a similar case where a female data entry operator working on a contract basis at Srirampura Town Panchayat in Mysuru misappropriated tax payments made by the public without depositing them into Government account.

It is also worth noting a previous instance where two staff members of KSRP Unit in Mysuru misappropriated incentive funds meant for Police personnel.

The repeated misuse of public money highlights a troubling pattern of corruption in Government Departments, eroding trust and accountability in Mysuru's administration.

When Jayamma was alone in the house, the stranger, who came asking for water, followed her inside and gagged her mouth, tied her hands and legs and stole the 30 gram gold chain. The incident came to light when the neighbours saw Jayamma tied-up and rescued her. Santhasi Nagar Police have registered a case.

Successful kidney tumour removal surgery at Manipal Hospital

45-year-old woman undergoes right laparoscopic partial nephrectomy

Mysuru, Dec. 6- Renal Angiomyolipoma (AML) is a tumour in the kidney composed of blood vessels (angio-), smooth muscle (myo-) and fat (lipoma). These tumours are mostly non-cancerous but if they grow large or are left untreated, they can cause complications such as profuse bleeding from the kidney, which may require removal of kidney.

Addressing a press meet at Patrakarthara Bhavan in city on Dec. 3, Dr. K.A. Thimmaiah, Consultant - Urologist, Manipal Hospital, Mysuru, shed light on a complicated case of renal (kidney) tumour surgery at Manipal Hospital.

The Patient's Journey

The 45-year-old woman Prema (name changed) presented with recurrent UTI and was treated for the same. During her next visit as part of the work up, she was incidentally diagnosed to have right renal Angiomyolipoma which had grown significantly, measuring 6.7x6.5x6 cm and her present symptom was not related to this diagnosis.

Speaking about this situation, the renowned Urologist Dr. Thimmaiah stated, "While Angiomyolipomas though benign, but increase in their growth can lead to severe complications such as spontaneous bleeding. The mass can rupture, leading to a life-threatening condition requiring emergency surgery. If left unchecked, it can even result in the loss of the kidney, as surgeons may need to remove the entire organ to stop the bleeding."

Dr. K.A. Thimmaiah of Manipal Hospital, Mysuru, addressing a press meet in city recently.

Comprehensive Diagnosis, Challenging Treatment

Upon establishing the diagnosis of right renal Angiomyolipoma, the medical team led by Dr. Thimmaiah determined that the best course of action would be to perform a right laparoscopic partial nephrectomy (removal of the affected part of the kidney).

Laparoscopic surgery is a minimally invasive procedure that allows for the removal of the tumour while preserving the kidney. However, in many cases, despite laparoscopic surgery being minimally invasive, conventional open surgery may have to be considered due to certain challenges (as in this case especially as the tumour size was large).

Dr. Thimmaiah explains, "The kidney is highly vascular and has a rich blood supply. This poses a high risk of bleeding, especially when separating the tumour from the kidney. The large size of the tumour further adds to the complications. Conversion of the laparoscopic surgery to open surgery may be required to separate the tumour from the kidney and also achieve optimal bleeding control."

With Dr. Thimmaiah's expertise and surgical skills, the challenges were navigated successfully without the need for open surgery or any other major complications.

Following the surgery, the patient's recovery was swift, and she was discharged with stable vital signs, with post-operative care plan that included antibiotics, pain management, and instructions for follow-up.

Promise of Advanced Surgical Technologies

The successful outcome of this complex surgery reinforces the promise of advanced surgical technologies and the clinical expertise available at Manipal Hospital, Mysuru.

"This case highlights the importance of advanced surgical techniques. We were able to perform a delicate surgery with precision, bypassing the need for open surgery and preventing complications such as need for complete removal of the kidney," said Dr. Thimmaiah.

WORD OF THE DAY

Drub

Pronunciation: DRUB (Verb)
Meaning: To drub an individual or team, as in a game or contest, is to defeat them decisively.
Origin: Sports writers often use the word drub when a team they are covering is drubbed—that is, routed—but the term's history reveals that it wasn't always a sporting word. When drub was first used in English, it referred to a method of punishment that involved beating the soles of the accused's feet with a stick or cudgel. The term was apparently brought to England in the 17th century by travellers who reported observing the punitive practice abroad. The ultimate origin of drub is uncertain, but the etymological culprit may be the Arabic word ḍaraba, meaning "to beat." Over the centuries, drub developed the additional milder, and now more common, meanings of "to berate critically" and "to defeat decisively."
Example: "Dallas looked like one of the best teams in the NFL through two weeks, drubbing the Giants 40-0 in Week 1 and beating the Jets 30-10 in Week 2." — David Brandt, The Associated Press, 24 Sept. 2023

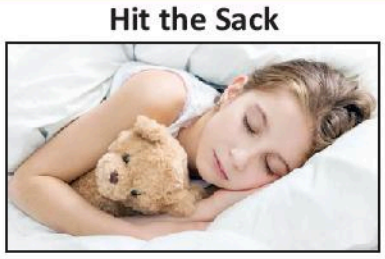
THE ODD WORD

Dystychiphobia

Fear of accidents.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Hit the Sack



Meaning: You use the phrase 'Hit the Sack' to indicate that it's time to go to bed.
Origin: In the days before modern mattresses, people often slept on large sacks filled with hay. The term 'Hit the sack' is believed to have come into common use before 1880.
Example: "I've got to get up early tomorrow, so I'm going to hit the sack."
